

Brownfield Program Overview

Moderator(s): Sam Ishak

DATE: Monday, October 7th, 2013 TIME: 3:30 pm

LOCATION: Chedoke B

GUEST SPEAKERS: Ms Jennifer Volpato - MOE-Niagara District Office

DESCRIPTION: Jennifer Volpato M.Eng., P.Geo., P.Eng. - General overview of the Ministry's Brownfield Program with the main focus being the Record of Site Condition process under Ontario Regulation 153/04 as amended.

BIOGRAPHY: Ms Jennifer Volpato, District Engineer

Jennifer has been with the Ministry of the Environment for over 11 years as a Regional Hydrogeologist in Hamilton and District Engineer in both the Peterborough and Guelph District Offices. She is currently the District Engineer for the Ministry's Niagara District Office. Jennifer is both a licensed Professional Engineer with the Professional Engineer's of Ontario and a Professional Geoscientist with the Association of Professional Geoscientists of Ontario and has obtained an undergraduate degree in Environmental Science and a Master of Engineering degree in Water Resources Engineering both from the University of Guelph.